

Volunteer as a Spanish Translator!

Description:

The Financial Coaching program has many forms that we need translated into Spanish. We'd like to be able to better serve the Spanish-speaking community, and to do that need help translating our financial education forms. Examples of forms include budgeting worksheets, information on credit, banking information, etc.

Not a perfect translator? Or uncertain of your financial vocabulary skills? Don't worry! After you translate for us, we'll have several people review the forms and edit as necessary. Our forms are all very basic, and financial vocabulary is not necessary.

Time Commitment:

You can take on as much or as little as you would like. We'll send you one document at a time, and you can work on it as your schedule allows. We ask for a commitment of four hours.

Background on Financial Coaching:

The Financial Coaching Program offers low-income individuals and families the opportunity to work one-on-one with a trained volunteer. Volunteers assist clients in creating concrete short and long-term financial goals, and provide them with the support and education to reach them. Our financial coaches help clients establish financial goals, get financially organized, fix credit, reduce debt, and set up a livable budget. Financial coaches work with a client over a number of sessions, depending on the client's concerns.
